I am overwhelmed by the immense favor I have been shown, none of it deserved, but all of it humbly accepted. I have enjoyed picking up pebbles of knowledge along life's path and using them to create stepping stones instead of stumbling blocks. Thank you for considering me to speak at your event. It's an honor to be able to use what I have learned and what God continues to teach me, to others.

Thank You

Lonnie Martin chooses to put her heart, soul and passion into the people she loves and all that she does. She lives a life of transparency and vulnerability.

Lonnie's authentic way of presenting truth both encourages and challenges her audience. Her approach to the word of God is refreshing and refueling.

God uses Lonnie to stir our passions and remind us of our dreams so that we may taste and touch, look and listen, slow down and even possibly stop to embrace and experience all that God has.

Her teaching takes us on an exciting journey through the word of God. Lonnie's ability to speak on a multitude of topics allows her to be a great fit for what the Lord is wanting to do in your meeting.
